MONTGOMERY PROFESSIONAL SERVICES CORPORATION ANNOUNCES BOARD APPOINTMENTS

Industry veterans Tom Evan and J. Michael Patterson join MPSC board to assist in guidance of company's growth.

SAN JOSE, Calif. (December 8, 2003) – Montgomery Professional Services Corporation, a Bay Area leader in outsourcing and temporary placement services announced that Silicon Valley business veterans, Tom Evan and J. Michael Patterson, recently joined the Board of Directors, according to Rick Giorgetti, President and CEO.

"I am excited to have these proven leaders become part of our team in creating a successful organization," commented Giorgetti. "Mike and Tom each bring a wealth of experience, leadership and contacts that will greatly support the development of MPSC"

Evan and Patterson are the first independent board appointments in the Company's 14 year history. Both are also investors in the company and have responsibilities to provide financial guidance, new business contacts and industry leadership and expertise.

Mr. Evan began his career in public accounting with Deloitte and Touche in the 1970's and joined Armstrong Bastow & Potter in 1982, becoming a partner in 1983. After AB&P merged with Peat Marwick in 1987, Evan was the Partner in charge of the middle market audit practice. He left KPMG in 1992 to join Shilling & Kenyon as Partner in charge of the accounting and audit practice and was a principal factor in SK's acquisition by CBIZ, a publicly traded middle market business services firm. Evan retired from SK in 2000. He is highly active in the community serving on the boards of Senior Adults Legal Assistance, a non-profit helping the elderly, the Boy and Girls Club of Silicon Valley, The Santa Clara University Business School Advisory Board, The St. Mary's Finance Committee and Saratoga NJB, a non-profit basketball league for 700 boys and girls. Mr. Evan is a graduate of Santa Clara University with a BSC in Accounting.
